Supplementary Table. Degree of cross-listing between categories. Black indicates no cross-listing between categories, red indicates a small degree of cross-listing (1 abstracts with this category is cross-listed within the other category,) orange indicates a moderate degree of cross-listing (2–5) all abstracts with this category are cross-listed within the other category,) and purple indicates high cross-listing (>5 of all abstracts in one category are cross-listed within the other category). Abbreviations are as follows. A = Age and Growth/Life History, BE = Behavior/Behavioral Ecology, BM = Bioenergetics/Metabolism, BD = Biogeography and Distribution, BM = Biomechanics and Functional Morphology, C = Conservation, D = Diet and Feeding Ecology, ER = Ecosystem Role, E = Ecotourism, F = Fisheries Management, H = Husbandry, I = Immunology, M = Movement and Telemetry, PA = Paleontology, PR = Parasitology, Ph = Physiology, P = Population, PG = Population Genetics, R = Reproductive Biology, SB = Shark Bites/Shark Repellent, SP = Sensory Biology and Physiology, S = Social Science/Human Dimensions, T = Taxonomy, TO = Toxicology.

	A	BE	BM	BD	BM	C	D	ER	E	F	H	I	M	PA	PR	PH	P	PG	R	SB	SP	S	T	TO A BE BM
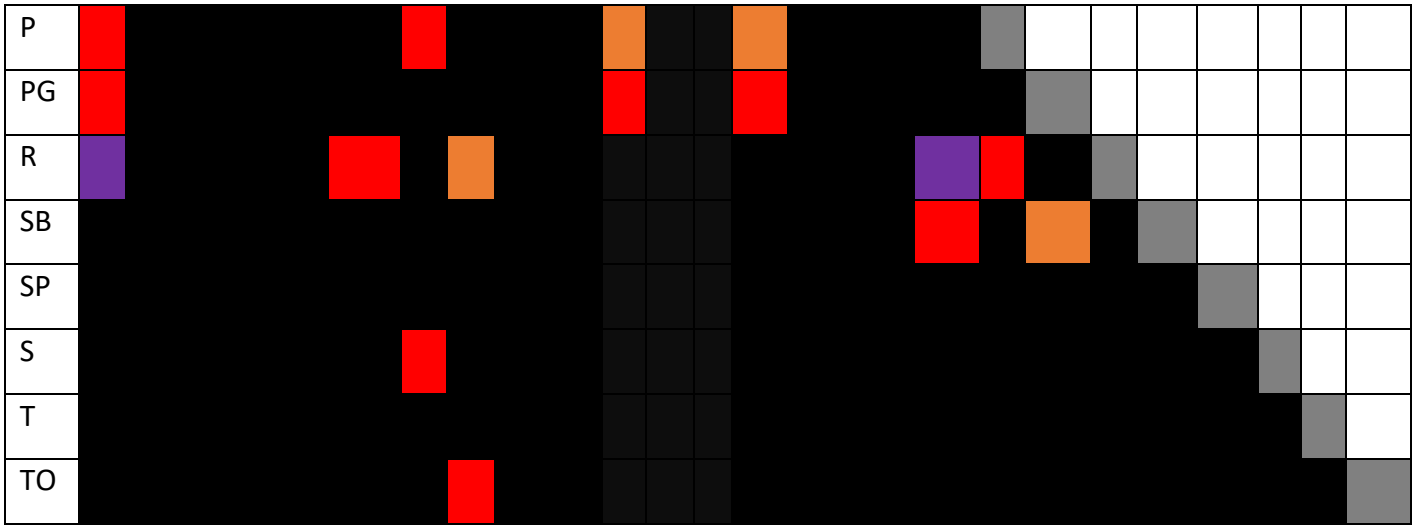
BD
BM
C
D
ER
E
F
H
I
M
PA
PR
PH



P
PG
R
SB
SP
S
T
TO